Student's Feedback Analysis

Students' feedback is an important part of teaching and learning process. A structured feedback form was constructed by IQAC based on various parameters like curriculum, teaching, learning and evaluation, governance and management, infrastructure etc. At the end of the session IQAC conducted a meeting with Head of the departments and ask them to collect feedback form from their students. Each student was asked to provide opinion of each subject and subject teacher. Analysis was discussed in the meeting of IQAC under the chairmanship of Principal. Suggestions as well as grievances of the students were considered while framing future policies. In Students' opinion, more audio-visual aids are needed to make lectures interesting. In this direction efforts are being made. Necessary audio-visual aids are needed to be acquired. The students seemed to be satisfied with their concerned teachers and their teaching methods.
